

FINACLE CONSULTING GROUP

Role Designation

Consultant / Senior Consultant (Experience Required: 3 Years+)

Unit Brief

Our Vision: To be the trusted one stop “strategy to execution” global banking transformation and digital innovation advisor for designing pragmatic business maximization solutions, building future of banking ready capabilities and delivering the best business value realization, user adoption and faster go-to-market transformation programs for our banking and financial services clients

About us: Finacle Consulting Group (FCG) is the business and digital consulting arm of Infosys Finacle, the leading global banking solution provider. Finacle leads the analyst's quadrant as the leader in banking transformation solutions with a history of 25+ years serving the leading global banks. We have a global footprint with 250 + clients across 100 countries.

At the core, we remain a well-funded Start Up at heart, pioneering value focused business and digital transformation program capabilities for our clients. When the consulting industry is disrupting itself in today's digital world, we believe we are the next generation business consulting firm poised well for delivering client value through asset-based consulting and product platforms

We have a strong focus on business value in our differentiated holistic transformation approach enabled through high performing banking assets, accelerated solution design and client personalization. We are a trusted business transformation advisor and digital reengineering partner building customer focused demand driven exponential growth to future of industry organizations.

We are implementing change at many of the world's top banking & financial services companies leveraging our global industry experience, understanding of latest of technology innovations, design thinking and ability to manage large programs to deliver end to end strategy to execution transformation programs as a one stop shop to our clients. Our people are experienced and innovative industry experts, each bringing in a proven track record, creative thinking, technology expertise, and in-depth experience of trans-formational change.

Why join us?

- Lead transformative change in our rapidly growing global practice at Finacle Consulting Group
- Define and give shape to the Future of Industry – from Strategy to Execution. Partner with our product, delivery and sales team to design solutions, lead digital product innovation and deliver groundbreaking projects in banking and financial services
- Work on emerging industry themes like Future of Banking, Mobile first, Open Banking, blockchain, AI, intelligent automation, advanced analytics, and digital innovations
- Develop innovative business capabilities and frameworks including new business models, strategic planning, consumer experience re-design, operating Model, omni-channel Strategy, etc.

FINACLE CONSULTING GROUP

- Excel in an entrepreneurial and collaborative setting with a diverse global team. Benefit from top-tier career growth opportunities, elevated responsibilities, and leading roles for high-achieving consultants who deliver innovative solutions to our clients.
- Gain valuable learning experiences with greater responsibilities from strategy to execution. Obtain First-hand exposure with clients and industry leaders at all levels significantly accelerating your learning and growth trajectory

What are we looking for?

We are looking for smart, self-driven, highly motivated individuals with exceptional communication skills, intellectual curiosity and passion for the banking and financial services consulting practices. Our consultants possess a mix of deep domain expertise for various financial services and banking products, robust business consulting abilities and excellent interpersonal skills to contribute to dynamic, collaborative team environments.

Key Responsibilities

At Finacle Consulting Group, you will:

- Be responsible for delivering consulting engagements for large-medium-small sized companies across the globe in one or more of the following sectors: Banking / Financial Services / Payments
- Program manage large-scale transformation projects throughout every stage of banking and financial services value chain
- Independently lead client CXO conversations, build proposals & solution approach, lead design thinking workshops, lead consulting engagements and project teams
- Communicate business concepts and solutions clearly and persuasively, supported by a deep understanding of the details
- Contribute to building business strategy/ value led propositions, accelerated solution design capabilities for banking transformation engagements for faster project delivery
- Contribute to key account management and building client relationship by driving business development initiatives, evaluating opportunities and presenting to clients
- Proactively work with the product innovation teams to build the next generations banking capabilities on the Finacle platform
- Contribute to enhancing the profile and brand of Finacle Consulting Group by engaging in firm building activities, developing new capabilities, contributing to thought leadership, authoring whitepapers and attending partner conferences

Knowledge and skills required

Knowledge: Domain Knowledge in one or two banking areas, understanding of financial services market

Skills: Consulting, Problem Solving, Assessment, Client Interfacing skills, Communication (Written & Verbal)